

Stephanie Moor

Senior Buyer
Level Shoes

With a Masters degree in Fashion Marketing as well as a BA(Hons) in Fashion Management from Nottingham Trent University. Stephanie began her career in 2010 Buying Men's Accessories for Ralph Lauren based in London, managing 27 European stores.

With a keen interest in men's Stephanie joined Level Shoes the international reference for footwear in 2013 to manage and grow the Men's footwear business across Designer and Trends.

In 2016 Stephanie also took over the kid's footwear buying for Level shoes and launched the new kid's department with a big focus on creating a strong mini-me offer.

In 2019 she took on the new challenge of launching a curated edit of Men's Accessories. Currently heading up the buying for Men's and Kid's Stephanie buys over 200 brands and continues to find new, exclusive brands and styles to elevate and differentiate the Level Shoes offer.

